DYSPEPSIA

Causes its victims to be miserable, hopeless, confused, and depressed in mind, very irritable, languid, and drowsy. It is a disease which does not get well of itself. It requires careful, persistent attention, and a remedy to throw off the causes and tone up the digestive organs till they perform their duties willingly. Hood's Sarsaparilla has proven just the required remedy in hundreds of cases.

"I have taken Hood's Sarsaparilla for dyspepsia, from which I have suffered two years. I tried many other medicines, but none proved so satisfactory as Hood's Sarsaparilla." THOMAS COOK, Brush Electric Light Co., New York City.

Sick Headache

"For the past two years I have been afflicted with severe headaches and dyspepsia. I was induced to try Hood's Sarsaparilla, and have found great relief. I cheerfully recommend it to all." Mrs. E. F. ANNABLE, New Haven, Conn.

Mrs. Mary C. Smith, Cambridgeport, Mass., was a sufferer from dyspepsia and sick headache. She took Hood's Sarsaparilla and found it the best remedy she ever used.

A Steamer Wrecked.

By Telegraph to THE SENTINEL.
BEAUFORT, S. C., August 24.—The steamer Alexandria, which arrived yesterday, reports the wreck of the steamer Beaufort, on August 8, off Bermudas. Captain Penny and a crew of ten or twelve men are believed to have been lost. The Beaufort sailed from Bermuda August 2 and was caught in a hurricane when six days out. The men on the tug that took the Beaufort down the river stated that the officers and crew were drunk when they parted company.

Will Build a Monument.

By Telegraph to THE SENTINEL.
CALDWELL, O., Aug. 24.—Soldiers here are trying to raise $15,000 with which to build a private soldier's monument in form in front of Memorial hall. They raised $1,000 at the soldier's reunion and have appointed H. E. Peters, quartermaster of Post 491, G. A. R. to receive contributions. In 1874 there was a reunion here of "Blue and Gray," and as a consequence, J. M. Dalzell, who called that reunion received letters recently from Col. Robert McEldowney, of Martinsville, West Virginia, and a member of Stonewall Jackson's brigade, inclosing contributions for the monument. He says, "I am not a member of any confederate camp, being too far removed from them, but the brigade (Stonewall) to which I belong has something of a history. I enclose a small contribution with regrets that I cannot make it a larger sum."

CROOKED WORK.

The Residence of S. L. Morris Burglarized—Officers Sheridan and Owens Tapped.

The Red Adams gang of thieves and pickpockets abandoned all "railroad work" Saturday and crowded into the city. There were fifteen or twenty in the party. The first raid on them was Saturday afternoon, when Officers Rohle, Deputy Sheriff Clausmeyer and Deputy Marshal Patton and Officer Lapp arrested three thieves. One of them was in the act of robbing a woman. The fellows were armed and said they were railroad men. This snafu did not work and at 9 o'clock Sunday night they sent for S. L. Morris to secure them a trial. He could not at that hour and the matter went over until this morning.

Saturday night members of the same gang entered the residence of Mr. Morris and stole $7 or $8. His watch and valuable jewels were near the money, but the burglars did not discover them.

Saturday evening sneak thieves got into the Aufrecht block and stole a gold watch and chain and other gold jewels and articles of value from the bachelor apartments that abound in the harem-like resort.

Francis Goodman's saloon, on West Columbia street, was touched for a nice sum of money Saturday. Two men engaged Mr. Goodman in a back room while their pals robbed his cash drawer.

Officer Owens arrested a thief at the terminus of the west end street car line, Saturday night. He put nippers on the fellow and boarded a car with him. His pals stopped the car, struck the officer with a stone, cutting his scalp and liberating the thief. When the officer got up he could recognize none of his assailants, whom he would have killed on sight.

Officer Sheridan attempted the same work at the south depot, and was knocked down by friends of the prisoner, who pulled him from the officer's grasp. Mr. Sheridan fired three shots at his assailant, but unfortunately did not kill him.

Last night Capt. Diehl instructed his men to put cold lead into the thieves at the slightest provocation, but not an opportunity presented itself. At the depot, where excursion trains were departing, a few fights occurred, but the police, assisted by the marshals and deputy sheriffs, kept things straight. Ed Clausmeyer arrested one fellow, who had a "gun" and three big beer glasses in his pockets. He was spoiling for a fight at the Muncie depot.

THIEVES ON TRIAL.

John Doe, a slick looking rooster, was arraigned before the mayor this morning for robbing Goodman's saloon. He did not give his right name, but is one of the gang. He was ordered to jail in default of $400 bail, and will be given a hearing Thursday.

Jas. Hughes and Jas. Stapleton were arraigned before Justice Ryan. These men are pickpockets, but say they can give references from Kansas City. They will have a chance to show them Thursday. They are in jail in default of $200 bail.

A SAD SUICIDE.

Mrs. Casper Rau Cuts Her Throat and Dies in Great Agony.

Just before noon, Mrs. Casper Rau, who lives at 239 East Washington street, secreted in her room a knife, and with it cut her throat from ear to ear as quickly as members of her family left her presence. When discovered she lay in a pool of blood, gasping for the last time, in great agony. All efforts to unite the severed parts were futile, and death soon put an end to her life. Some months ago the lady attempted to drown herself. She has been ill for a long time, and disease deethroned her reason. Her husband long drove a bakery wagon, but now keeps a grocery store just opposite his home. Mrs. Rau has a daughter now in a critical condition, and the knowledge of her mother's awful death may kill her.

WANTS A HUSBAND.

Louis Yobst Arrested at the Instance of Mary Raef.

Mary Raef, a rather plump and winsome Fraulien, appeared before Justice Ryan and charged Louis Yobst, the butcher, with responsibility of a decidedly parental nature. She says Yobst made love to her, and as a consequence she is to become a mamma. She asks her truant lover to do the right thing, but he preferred to give bail and stand trial. Mr. Yobst is the successor to Henry Linker, who kept a shop on South Calhoun street. The trial will test Mr. Yobst's guilt or innocence. If innocent he will wed another girl.

A HORSE KILLED.

Joe Douglass the Hero of a Fatal Collision.

Captain Conn, of the Elkhart battery, brought here with him a fine saddle horse. Joe Douglass, the South Calhoun street liquor man, rode the animal west on Berry street last night at great speed. Douglass did not notice the approach of a man driving a horse to a light buckboard until the shaft struck him on the knee and cut a deep wound. The horse he rode stumbled forward at the same moment and broke its neck. The animal died in an instant, and Mr. Douglass will pay its owner.

T. J. NOLTON & CO.

This firm had one of the prettiest and most attractive displays in the encampment procession Saturday, and the great throng expressed much admiration at it. A pyramid was set in the centre of their wagon, with four corner pieces, pyramid shape, on which were displayed fine table cutlery, pocket knives and razors, locks, carpenter's tools and garden implements, axes, hatchets, cross-cut saws, etc. Behind it came the celebrated Caseday sulky plow, and farmers were delighted with the implement.

Two Children Kill a Younger Brother.

By Telegraph to THE SENTINEL.
MONTGOMERY, Ala., Aug. 24.—A special to the Advertiser from Talladega says: George H. McGowan killed and dressed a pig for a barbecue last night. His three children, aged eleven, nine and four years, having seen the operation, tried to repeat it. Having no pig, the two older children slaughtered the younger, and were about to disembowel it when their mother discovered the horrible tragedy.

Frost in the Northwest.

By Telegraph to THE SENTINEL.
ST. PAUL, Minn., Aug. 24.—The signal service here has advised which report that a killing frost occurred last night over the greater portion of the northwest territory, extending southward to the northern part of Minnesota. The temperature was 27 at St. Vincent just before sunrise this morning.

Report says the frost is not likely to extend very far south of St. Vincent. The lowest temperature reported this morning was 25 at Minnecoda, in the northwest territory.

The air in St. Paul is crisp and chilly, but there was no frost. Visitors are leaving the lakes in large parties to-day for the south.

PAYMENTS STOPPED.

Investigating the Kansas City Postoffice Building.

By Telegraph to THE SENTINEL.
NEW YORK, Aug. 24.—A Washington special to the Sun says the treasury commission, which has been investigating the office of the supervising architect, has ordered the suspension of all payments in the case of the new postoffice building in Kansas City. At the last session of congress $20,000 was appropriated for the completion of the approaches to the building, for a clock and for sewer connections. It now appears that Supervising Architect Bell has spent the whole $20,000 and that only $1,400 of that sum had gone for any of the objects embraced in the appropriation. Eighteen thousand, six hundred dollars has been spent for heavy marble wainscoting within the postoffice, for which there is no warrant in the appropriation.

Mrs. Woodworth at Xenia.

Mrs. Woodworth, the trance evangelist, is holding a great revival at Xenia and hundreds go into the trance state. The pavilion, together with fourteen tents, which Mrs. Woodworth carries about with her, is not used save in bad weather. It is fashioned like a circus tent and will accommodate about eight hundred people. The husband of the evangelist is of a thrifty turn, and while the meetings are in progress he and two assistants operate a peanut, candy and lemonade stand within sixty feet of the pulpit. The other day, as men and women were shouting and going into trances, old Woodworth sat beside an ice cream freezer and cranked away unconcernedly, preparing a supply of this popular refreshment for the weary, sin-sick crowd. Sunday morning he was selling cigars and plugging watermelons for the million, and the nickels, dimes and quarters flowed into his till in a steady stream while his wife was laboring with care-burdened sinners.

The Governor and Staff.

Governor I. P. Gray and his staff, with the exception of three members, left the city last night. Yesterday Mr. J. H. Bass and R. J. Fisher drove Governor Gray to the Brookside Farm, where a brief stay was much enjoyed. Later the governor was a caller at the residence of Hon. Wm. Fleming. Hon. Montgomery Hamilton entertained members of the governor's staff, while his excellency remained at Mayor Mulher's home.

A New Railroad Promised.

"Parties in this city are talking strongly of building a road between Indianapolis and Fort Wayne, and it is said that they have already interested the people of nearly all of the large towns between here and there in the project. Many of the prominent citizens have signified their willingness to lend the scheme their support in a financial way. The leading spirits in the enterprise are now communicating with Boston capitalists, from whom they expect a great deal," says the Indianapolis Sentinel.

The Jenny Light Wins.

At the last meeting of the board of trustees of West Indianapolis the proposition of the Jenny company was accepted, as THE SENTINEL intimated a week ago it would be. The company proposes to put up eighteen electric lights and maintain them for one year for $2,800, the trustees having the privilege of renewing the arrangement for two years more. They also agree to establish a factory in the town for the manufacture of electric apparatus and forfeit the year's light rent if they fail.

East Bound Freight.

The shipments of flour, grain and provisions from Chicago to eastern through stations by the pool lines during the week ending Saturday, Aug. 22, amounted to 33,239 tons, against 20,710 tons during the preceding week, an increase of 12,529 tons. Shipments of flour increased 251 tons, those of grain increased 10,144 tons, while those of provisions increased 2,194 tons. The Pittsburg road carried 4,709 and the Nickel Plate 5,993 tons. The Nickel Plate road is accused of cutting rates, and figures are given to prove it.

She Wants to Die.

Maud Dignan, a woman who rooms on East Columbia street, near Lew Clark's saloon, wanted to die last night, and took a dose of opium. She swallowed too much of the drug, and Dr. H. S. Meyers arrived in time to save her life. Maud loved a young fellow, who did not reciprocate in proper lumps.

A Bride of a Month Arrested for Murder.

By Telegraph to THE SENTINEL.

NEW ORLEANS, La., Aug. 24.—Nothing for a long time has created so much excitement here as the news of the arrest in Emporia, Kas., of Mrs. Minnie Wallace Walkup for poisoning her husband. The marriage took place just a month to a day before the death of the husband. Mr. Walkup had been a familiar figure on the streets of New Orleans. He was a Virginian, and a handsome, energetic man of considerable wealth and ability. He was about forty-five years of age and a widower, with two daughters. The youngest of his children, Miss Libbie, is a year older than the wife he recently married. Minnie Wallace Walkup is seventeen years old. Her father is James E. Wallace, formerly United States' commissioner. The wedding took place at Covington, Ky., July 22, and was a brilliant affair. The bridal couple seemed very happy, and left for Niagara Falls, making a short trip and then going direct to the home of the groom, at Emporia. From her letters Mrs. Walkup seemed to be living a happy life, with no wants unprovided. Her last letter, received five days ago, said Mr. Walkup was going on a short trip on business, and she was to go along. Her friends say that the purchase by Mrs. Walkup of arsenic may be accounted for by the fact that she was addicted to the use of the drug for her complexion.

CHOLERA is rapidly moving westward and will soon appear in this country. In order to prevent disastrous effects from its ravages every preventive should be employed, and the system should be in perfect condition. At this season of the year the system is in a weak state and easily susceptible to dangerous disease. Pain in the back, weariness, lassitude, headache, dyspepsia, indigestion, kidney and liver complaints are but the results of neglect. During the last visitation of cholera to this country no medicine was found equal to Mishler's Herb Bitters, both as a preventive and cure, and it has been equally successful in all the diseases above mentioned. It renews and invigorates the blood, restoring to health and strength, and thus shielding the system from disease.

Ask your druggist for MISHLER'S HERB BITTERS. If he does not keep it do not take anything else, but send a postal card to MISHLER, HERB BITTERS, Topeka, Kan.

THE largest farm in the world is in Canada. This is the "Bell Farm" belonging to the Qu'Appelle River Farming Company. This farm consists of 54,000 acres, of which some 13,000 acres are under close cultivation. The average yield of the whole 13,000 acres is twenty-five to thirty bushels of wheat per acre. On one of the best sections of 1,000 acres the yield is 35,000 bushels of wheat. Every 200 acres has upon it a cottage with a man living in it rent free, having charge of three horses.

OF the twenty-two pall-bearers at Abraham Lincoln's funeral, only seven are alive. The seven are: Gen. Simon Cameron, Elihu B. Washburne, Col. H. G. Worthington, the Rev. Green Clay Smith, Alexander H. Coffroth, Henry L. Dawes, and John Cunneen. The dead pall-bearers are: Lafayette S. Foster, Edwin D. Morgan, Reverdy Johnson, Richard Yates, Ben F. Wade, Schuyler Colfax, Gen. U. S. Grant, Gen. Henry Wagner Halleck, Gen. W. A. Nichols, Admiral David G. Farragut, Admiral W. B. Shubrick, Col. Jacob Zeller, Orville H. Browning, Thomas Corwin, and George Ashmun.

CHICAGO Inter Ocean: A man who has for years run a banana wagon concluded to take advantage of the West Side strike, and rigged up his vehicle for the accommodation of passengers. He soon got a partial load and started west, expecting to fill up after crossing the Madison street bridge. At Jefferson street he horrified the lady passengers by shouting at the top of his voice: "Ban-an-os! ba-nan-os! Twelve for 25 cents." Before he had time to change his call the ladies concluded that the walking was good on the West Side, and left the wagon. Habit sometimes ruins a man.

AN entirely new kind of bank note printed in colors instead of the black and white of the Bank of England notes is being prepared for issue by the Bank of Scotland. The promise to pay in the body of the note is surrounded on two of its sides by a broad ornamental band, and on the other two sides by a border in which the value of the note is printed a great number of times. On one border the seal and counter seal of King William II, of Scotland, are printed in brown on a yellow ground, and between them are the royal arms on a blue ground. On the upper border are the arms of the bank in brown on a yellow ground, with the date of the establishment of the bank, 1695. The chief novelty on the new note is its color, which will, of course, make reproduction by photography impossible, and it is believed, will prevent forgery. The paper on which the new note is printed is made by the same firm as produces the Bank of England note paper.

The history of France is full of romance, and the history of Mishler's herb bitters is full of facts. These facts consist of the wonderful cures that have been wrought by the bitters in kidney and liver troubles, asthma, erysipelas, dyspepsia, sick headache, and dozens of other complaints. I. C. Story, of Zanesville, O., had chronic rheumatism for many years. He purchased two bottles of this great preparation, and after using them pronounced himself entirely cured.

 was in a horrible condition, and at my solicitation his treatment with S. S. S. was undertaken by a physician after several others had declared his case to be hopelessly incurable. He took nothing but S. S. S., and has been as sound as a new dollar for several months. I regard his cure almost miraculous.

OUR INDUSTRIES.

An After Glance at Them in the Great Pageant Saturday.

THE SENTINEL left little to say of the splendid industrial parade, Saturday, save to note the fine turnout of Louis Rastetter, the successful bent wood manufacturer.

Another feature of the parade and probably the finest sight ever witnessed in Fort Wayne was the display of the famous French brewery. The Messrs. Centlivre and John Reuss were in an open carriage. Just behind them was a brand new wagon made by Chauvey Bros., of this city, just out of the shop, never ran before and drawn by four horses. It is the finest vehicle of the kind ever seen in Fort Wayne. It was handsomely lettered with Mr. C. L. Centlivre's name in gilt and contained imported hops from Bohemia and Canada malt, from which Centlivre's famous Bohemian beer is manufactured. The other wagons were loaded with kegs, and placards were attached which read Bohemian, Culmbacher, Kaiser and Pilsener beer.

A word about Bohemian beer. The principal ingredients of Bohemian beer are Bohemian hops and Canadian malt. The hops are imported direct from Bohemia, in Bavaria, and are universally recognized as being the finest grown in any part of the world. The Canadian malt gives the greatest satisfaction of any in the market, and of these two components, from different quarters of the globe, the justly celebrated Bohemian beer is manufactured. The water used in its manufacture is obtained from a driven well, and by actual chemical analysis it is found to be superior to any ever before discovered about Fort Wayne. After the beer has been bottled it is subjected to a steaming process, which thoroughly destroys the fermentation, and it can then be preserved if kept at a moderate temperature for any length of time in any climate. The excellent quality of this beer makes it a commendable drink for all persons. It is healthful, invigorating and refreshing, and its health-giving properties cannot be questioned, since some of the most prominent physicians of the city regularly prescribe it to their patients. Bohemian beer rejuvenates the old, restores the sick and comforts the afflicted. One cannot behold it sparkling in the cup without longing for a sip. Above all, it can be conscientiously recommended to all those who enjoy a healthy, invigorating drink; does not readily intoxicate, and never leaves any unpleasant effects—such as headache, drowsiness, etc., as it is the case after drinking many of the other varieties of beer.

had an admirable display in the line. His huge dog stood in a handsome wagon, while about his feet were arranged every conceivable style and kind of crockery, which Mr. Ward makes a specialty of. The dog stood over these treasures with an air of pride, and seemed to challenge the world to equal his master's goods in quality, kind and make. Mr. Ward has probably the most extensive line of goods and his mammoth store, No. 8 West Columbia street, is always open to the public. Ward's big dog stands guard outside and this fact will lead strangers to the place.

Death of Mrs. R. V. Jones.

Died, on Sunday morning, the 23d inst., Mrs. Resin V. Jones, at the residence of her sister, Mrs. George R. Hartmann. Funeral from the residence, 771 West Washington street, on Tuesday at 3 p. m. Friends of the family are invited to attend without further notice. Mrs. Jones was a very estimable lady and her death is deeply mourned by her relatives and a wide circle of friends.

Something About Doctors.

The physicians mean well and work for the best, but they cannot always reach the source of disease and drive it out as Brown's Iron Bitters can. Mr. H. C. Hyatt, of the Minor house, Montgomery, Ga., writes: "My wife, who has been an invalid for nearly a year, has been greatly benefited by using Brown's Iron Bitters. Previous to taking it she had prominent physicians in Atlanta, Macon, and other cities attending her, without receiving much benefit. What physicians have failed to do, Brown's Iron Bitters has accomplished."

A WISE man changes his mind; a fool never will.

New Light on Rheumatism.

"I had been completely disabled from rheumatism. I used Parker's tonic for kidney disease, when to my astonishment the rheumatism completely disappeared." So writes Mrs. Henry Bogert, of No. 454 Atlantic avenue, Brooklyn, N. Y. Rheumatism arises from the failure of the kidneys to separate the uric acid from the blood.

MYSTERY OF A PLANT.

Growing for Seventy Years on a Murdered Man's Grave.

Every year, at about the time wheat begins to ripen in the Genesee Valley, a plant which grows a short distance from the road, at a spot midway between Caledonia and Avon, begins to bud, and when the wheat is being cut, the buds have opened into light purple, wax-like flowers. The plant has three stalks, and, although they have grown, bloomed, and gone to seed for seventy years, not another plant of the kind has ever appeared elsewhere in all this region, nor was the species ever seen here before the mysterious appearance of these three stalks, in the summer of 1815. But for them it is more than likely that the story of an old-time tragedy in the Genesee Valley would long ago have been forgotten.

The road by the side of which this strange plant grows is one of the old State roads, and in 1814 it was the great thoroughfare through this valley for travel and trade between the lakes and the East, and detachments of troops were constantly passing to and fro along the road. One Sunday in October, 1814, a number of American soldiers were on their way from Buffalo to Sackett's Harbor. The day before had been pay-day, and there was more or less hilarity among the soldiers. This was especially noticed by the residents of the vicinity when the troops camped for dinner in the grove near Sylvester Hosmer's farm-house, midway between this village and Avon. The soldiers made very merry, and two of them had used their canteens so freely that when the body of troops moved on they were left behind to recuperate.

About 3 o'clock in the afternoon Mrs. Hosmer heard the report of a gun. It came from the direction of the camp. In those days the sound of fire-arms was a common thing to hear, even on Sunday, and no attention was paid to that particular shot. At dusk that evening the deserted camp was visited by a member of the Hosmer family, and lying near the still smoldering campfire he discovered the dead body of a soldier half concealed in a clump of bushes. There was a bullet hole in the dead man's temple. All the surrounding circumstances showed plainly that the soldier had been murdered and robbed. Word was at once sent to the commanding officer of the department, and a roll-call of his company showed that privates John Alexander and William Comut were missing. The dead man was private John Alexander. Comut was captured, and as he had nearly twice the amount of his own pay on his own person, he was held as Alexander's murderer. He was tried, convicted, and hung. The murdered man was buried near the roadside, a short distance from the scene of the murder. The next spring a strange plant of one stalk was found growing on his grave, and the following year two other stalks of the same kind sprang up a foot or two from the first one. As their like had never been seen in the valley, there was much speculation as to what they were. They never spread beyond the surface of the grave. Alexander was from the vicinity of New Haven, Conn. In the summer of 1817, the Hon. George W. Clinton, of Buffalo, was in that locality. He had often wondered what the strange plant on Alexander's grave was, and on his visit to Connecticut he found it growing in profusion about the dead soldier's native place. It was known there as "False Gromwell." How it came to grow on the murdered man's grave is a mystery which has never been solved—a mystery, however, which is no deeper than the one which surrounds the fact that the plant has taken root nowhere else in the Genesee country.—Caledonia (N. Y.) Cor. New York Sun.

WHAT THEY FRIED THE STEAK IN.
My editor and I started to walk to St. Albans with a valued friend, who was by profession a pedagogue and a piano-forte tuner. Midway we put up at a snug hostelry, and ordered, for the comfort of the inner man, a dish of rump steaks. While this was being prepared we sat in pleasant conversation, which was interrupted by a peculiar hissing and sizzling sound that unmistakably came from the kitchen. "Why, hang me," suddenly exclaimed Pendragon, with his hair almost on end, with horror, "hang me, if they're not frying it!"—"the it," of course, having reference to the steak. Our lamented friend thereupon drew from his pocket a tuning fork, struck it upon the table, and quietly remarked, as he applied it to his ear: "Yes, and hang me if they're not frying it in 'G!'—London Referee.

EVIDENTLY BELIEVES IN "SHEOL."

He looked earnestly at the two glass hand-grenades that hung on the walls of the corridor at Drury Lane.

"How thoughtful," he said, "of the management to provide bottles of water in case of faintness among the ladies." "Them's fire-extinguishers," interrupted the attendant. "When a fire breaks out you throw a bottle at it, and they put it out." "Any kind of fire?" "Yes; big or little." "Then I'll have half a dozen put into my collar."—Paris Morning News.

Fort Wayne Paint and Color Works,

No. 12 West Columbia Street Fort Wayne, Indiana.

To Painters

And others wanting First-class Paints: Do you know that you have in Fort Wayne a Manufacturer of Mixed Paint and Grinders of Colors, where you can buy your Paints from first hand instead of paying the middle man his profit, which are from 25 to 33 per cent. O. L. STARKEY, the Painter and proprietor of the Fort Wayne Paint and Color Works, came to Fort Wayne in April, 1856, and is identified as one of the old citizens who has helped build up Fort Wayne, and his knowledge of Paints and the composition of pigments to form different shades and tints is well-known to the public, and his long practical experience in painting gives him the knowledge of Paints that a mere dealer cannot have for he does not know anything about Paints, as he buys them sealed up and he cannot tell you what it takes to make this or that shade. All he knows is what the label on the can says. Neither can he tell you shades that will or will not fade. By buying your Paints of O. L. STARKEY you can get all the information you want. I am making Liquid Paints in all shades and colors; also the same shades and colors in paste form, the same thickness as white lead and requires thinning down the same as white lead. In making the different shades my formulas are all registered giving the amount of each color it takes to form certain shades all thoroughly mixed together in the powder mills, then wet down and run through a mixing machine, and from there to the mills where it is all ground together making a pigment that cannot be made by hand. Call or send and get some of my sample cards of colors and tints; also see elevations of gothic houses colored up with four and five shades, which will give you a good idea how to paint and ornament the outside of your houses.

I say again, do not buy of the middle man if you want to save money. I will guarantee my prices and quality of goods with any manufacturer in the United States.

The indications for the lower lake region, as reported by the weather bureau at Washington to THE SENTINEL are as follows: Local rains and thunder storms, variable winds becoming northerly, slight fall in temperature, higher barometer.

The peach crop is turning out to be a fair one. There will not be many peaches in this state, as the trees have never fully recovered from the damage done by the cold weather a few years ago, but there is a good crop in the east and large shipments are now being received in our market.

TOUCHED BY A SPARK.

The Double Residence of George Walburton and R. C. Ross Shattered by Lightning.
The Inmates Stricken
Down.

The approach of the rain storm, last evening, was heralded by a terrific lightning flash. The air was heavy with electricity, and when the thunderbolt came, at 6 o'clock, it circled the city quicker than thought and crashed into the double residence of George Walburton and R. C. Ross, on Wells street. The house is owned by Nic Benz, a Washington township farmer. It is a double frame dwelling, stoutly constructed.

The flash evidently hit the chimney and entered the upper and lower middle rooms of Mr. Walburton's residence, through the stove pipe holes. On the north side of the house, the windows were cracked into bits, the shutters were flung twenty feet from their holdings and the weatherboards plucked from the workwork like chaff.
 Inside all was disorder and ruin. Mrs.
 Walburton and her little child were alone at the time. The spark dislodged the plaster above and about her; raised the carpet and split the heavy floor into splinters. The beds were flung about and the iron and steel snatched from everything in the house. Mrs. Walburton was stricken senseless. A stocking and slipper were torn from her right foot, but other than this and the shock, the lady was uninjured. Her little babe escaped entirely and both were carried from the scene of ruin by kind neighbors, foremost of whom was Lieut.
 Frank Wilkinson. Mr. Walburton, who is a machinist at the Muncie shops, was hastily summoned.

At the residence of Mr. Ross the damage was not so great. The upper middle bed room was in great disorder. The bolt burned the springs under a bed, ran into a back room and prostrated Mr. Ross' daughter. She ran to the room below to find it heaped with plastering and debris. The sadder on a bird cage was melted and a pretty canary bird liberated unharmed. Mrs.
 Ross and others of her family were momentarily shocked, but all are thankful their fate was not death. Mr. Ross is yardmaster for the Lake Shore Road.

The residence is almost a complete wreck and will have to be reconstructed.
 The heaviest interior woodwork is in bits and the whole foundation of the structure is disturbed. A cable clothes-wire runs from the stable to the house, and it was believed this conducted the spark to the ill fated dwelling, but the theory could not be established. There was no lightning rod on the house and the fact, no doubt, will serve as a boom for the electric conductors.

CLOSED AT SHILOH.

The Greatest Encampment in the History of Northern Indiana at an End—The Festivities and Proceedings Since Saturday in Detail.

The parade received extended notice in THE SENTINEL Saturday, and save to note the fact that Captain Hugh M.
 Diehl led the long line, and Congressman Robert Lowry, Mayor Charles F.
 Muhler and Hon. F. P. Randall occupied open carriages, the festivities of that day can be assigned to the past.

The old vets, Grand Army men, were addressed Saturday evening by Grand Commander Burdette in a speech of an hour's duration. He spoke of the attempts of European monarchists to establish an empire on this continent, but thanked God it had failed. He called this attempt an assassin's stab, and summoned the outside world to notice how high the G. A. R. men held their heads and the reasons they had for doing so.

"That we live," said he, "in the grandest country the sun ever shone on —a land of peace and plenty. Our land contains everything necessary to happiness and universal liberty. Beyond our borders, where is the land or people who can say this? Who made it so? On whose shoulders rests the responsibility of this fact—whose blood watered the crop that has sprung from these battle fields? Twenty-four years ago we went to those fields and remained there till treason was dead.
 There are but a handful of us remaining.
 Death has claimed a great many of our late comrades, therefore, comrades, hold your heads high."

After a selection had been played by the Jackson band, Gen. Wm. Gibson, of Tiffin, O., was introduced and entertained the boys with army reminiscences for upwards an hour; calling forth enthusiastic applause by his witticisms and anecdotes.

General Prentiss' lecture was listened to with marked attention last night and was descriptive of Shiloh. Many prominent people were on the stage.

THE BATTLE OF SHILOH.

Although the skies threatened rain all day and up to the hour of the battle a steady stream of people poured into the city on all the railroads. No such throng ever struck town and competent judges say that it was the biggest crowd that ever assembled in the city. The crowd at the fair grounds was estimated at from 25,000 to 30,000 people, in fact, some men used bigger figures than these. At 1:30 the "union" and "confederate" forces were in battle array.
 The old warriors were enthused and cannons faced each other as fiercely as they did at bloody Shiloh. The troops were stationed to imitate their positions on that memorable occasion. Gen. Reub Williams, a soldierly gentleman, commanded the union forces with the dash and brilliancy of a Sheridan, while the gallant Colonel Briant was chieftain of the confederates. Members of their staff rode with them and flashed here and there with orders from their commanders. The cannons boomed, the gattling gun cracked as if it longed to tear a line to pieces, and the veterans fired blank cartridges at each other.
 The fight was spirited for an hour or more and closed for want of ammunition.

It was a pretty scene, and all were pleased with the picture of the famous fight at Shiloh.

NOTES.

During the afternoon the foot bridge way freely patronized.

Lieut. Gov. Manson was given a royal reception at the camp by his old comrades.

The number of tents in the militia camp are 265, holding an average of eight men, making a total of 2,120 militiamen.

Total registration at association headquarters amounts to 5,400. This return is made by the clerks, Messrs. Con Shuler, Joe Williams and Charles S. Kimball.

The total number of G. A. R. men in camp is 2,745, vouches for by Adj't Gen.
 Scott Cole. There are 29 Mexican veterans not included in the above figures.

On Saturday evening, an old soldier, whilst preventing a pickpocket from taking a lady's watch, was hit with a slung shot by his confederates and robbed of his purse.

Mr. Con Shuler, one of the clerks at the association headquarters, has sold his handsome mare to Frank Judy, foreman of the Pacific blacksmith shop.
 Mr. Shuler will shortly go to Kentucky to purchase another fine horse.

Mr. W. W. Rockhill was the only gentleman to extend favors to the press to-day. He gave complimentary tickets to the grand stand and reserved a stand for the reporters. The encampment people issued no free tickets.

A telegram to Mr. P. J. Fallon, from Plymouth, Mich., this morning says Col.
 C. A. Zollinger is much better but not able to attend the close of the encampment, where he was to command the union forces in the battle of Shiloh today.

At 5 p. m., during the dress parade, there were, by rough estimate, fully ten thousand people on the grounds. The rain interfered with the review and parade of the veterans, causing them to break ranks and seek shelter at the double quick.

The uniformed Catholic Knights, a fine body of men, escorted the Emmet Rifles to the Cathedral yesterday. The Jackson band headed the procession and at the church Rt. Rev. Bishop Rade-macher said pontifical high mass and Very Rev. Father Beammer preached a splendid sermon.

Guards were stationed this morning at 7 o'clock at Garden street and no vehicles were allowed to pass. At 8:30 a. m. seats were being taken in the grand stand by persons who were bound to be on time. Tents were struck and camp broken at 9 a. m. to prepare for the sham battle.

An attempt at pocketpicking was made about 4 p. m., yesterday, in the G. A.
 R. camp. The "operator" was caught and introduced to the pedal extremities of several of the old "dust beaters" and could by this time tell the dynamic force of each soldier with probably more correctness than the scale on the grounds.

The sanitary condition of the camp is in a frightful state, proper care not having been taken in establishing sinks. A purification of chloride of lime is badly needed. Should the present condition of affairs prevail for another week, a pestilence would surely break out. Numerous cases of cholera morbus and chronic diarrhoea were reported and relieved at surgeons' headquarters.

The occasion of the cannonading last night was the capture of the Butler battery by the G. A. R. camp, after considerable trouble. About 400 men were raised in the militia camp to undertake their recapture. The result was the capture and confiscation of the militia ac-countments. Four guns and about sixty prisoners were captured by the G. A. R. boys, but were subsequently released on parole and promise of "better behavior."

Low Daily post No. 33, department of Indiana, located at Bluffton, and consisting of 180 men under command of Post Commander Stegkamper, arrived on Saturday too late for notice in our afternoon's issue. They are a fine body of men, and were headed by Plessinger's martial band, by far the best sheep skin band on the grounds. The post occupied a large circular tent close to the stand.
 Yesterday afternoon the band were regulating the veterans with music from the stand. The little drummer boys, Adam Craig and Gussie Plessinger, fully hold their own against the Champion Pless-inger. For smooth, even life playing commend us to Comrade Harrison Craig.
 The Bluffton "boys" are all enjoying their camp life.

A business meeting of the Ohio veteran association was held at their headquarters, in Camp U. S. Grant, Aug. 23. The object of the association is to promote and facilitate intercourse between members of Ohio commands during the late war. The following named officers were elected for the ensuing year, viz.:

Nate C. Welch, commander, Warsaw, Ind.; John Gabelain, vice commander, Jackson, Mich.; H. O. Crosby, adjutant,
 Fort Wayne, Ind.; Jas. E. Graham, quartermaster, Fort Wayne, Ind.; R.
 W. McBride, aid-de-camp, Waterloo,
 Ind. Col. G. M. Devlin, Jackson, Mich.; M. Swartz, Andrews, Ind., and J. T. Bushing, Antioch, O., executive committee. The association propose to publish, at once, a full and complete roster of all such members, and at the earliest possible moment mail a copy to all comrades.

Dr. Pierce's "Favorite Prescription" is not extolled as a "cure-all," but admirably fulfills a singleness of purpose,
